Women's Fund of Greater Green Bay Announces New Advisory Board Members

Green Bay, Wis – The Women's Fund of Greater Green Bay is pleased to announce the appointment of five new members to its advisory board:

Anna Hoefner, Executive Administrative Assistant and Divisional Operations Manager, St. Norbert College

Indhira LaPuma, Partner, Smith, Gambrell, Russell

Brittni Moran, Vice President, Private Client Advisor, Nicolet Bank

Molly Vandervest, Vice President, Bellin Health Foundation

Tara Yang, City Commissioner, Green Bay Equal Rights Commission

Advisory Board members who have completed their six-year terms include: Julie Blank, Kristin Suchalla, and Rebecca Pruess. The Women's Fund thanks these members for their service as they transition to emeritus status.

Started in 1995, the Women's Fund Advisory Board is a 24-member, volunteer board of dynamic leaders who support the advocacy, promotion, fundraising, and grantmaking of the Women's Fund of Greater Green Bay, a fund of the Greater Green Bay Community Foundation. Most notably, the Board has spearheaded efforts to build an endowment of more than $3.2 million to make a difference in the lives of local women and girls.

"I am thrilled to welcome this talented group to the Advisory Board," said Lori Harris, Women's Fund president. "Their unique skill-sets are valuable assets as we continue to engage in philanthropy and strive to empower women and inspire girls in our community."

The Women's Fund to date has provided financial support to more than 100 local community initiatives and programs and has granted more than $1.56 million since its inception.
