WOMEN'S FUND OF GREATER GREEN BAY ANNOUNCES NEW ADVISORY BOARD MEMBERS
Sharing Their Passion for Empowering Women and Strengthening Communities

GREEN BAY, Wis. – The Women's Fund of Greater Green Bay is pleased to announce the appointment of four new members to its Advisory Board:

- Amy Budd, Vice President, Sales – Logistics, Schneider National
- Hsing-Yi Hsieh, Director of Food Protection and Regulatory Affairs, Festival Foods
- Alanna Martella Parman, Public Speaker and Certified Personal Trainer
- Sherrill Revolinski, Community Volunteer
- Nicole Smith, Senior Consultant, The Utech Group

Advisory Board members who have completed their two, three-year terms include: Jessica Diederich, Linda Hansen, Kim Linehan, and Ann Weiss. The Women's Fund thanks these members for their service as they transition to emeritus status.

The Women's Fund Advisory Board is a 23-member, volunteer board comprised of dynamic leaders who support the fundraising, promotion, and grantmaking of the Women's Fund of Greater Green Bay, a fund of the Greater Green Bay Community Foundation. Through leadership and support, the board has built an endowment of more than $3.7 million dollars used to make a difference in the lives of local women and girls.

"We are excited to welcome the new members to the Advisory Board," said Stephanie Schultz, Women's Fund president. "They bring forward skills and talents that are incredibly valuable as the Women's Fund continues to invest in women for a stronger community."

The Women's Fund to date has provided financial support to more than 170 local community initiatives and programs, and has granted more than $1.7 million dollars since its inception.
